

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest not the Republicans interest. This is such a misuse of public airwaves it can not be believed. I have no problem running the Kerry Documentary--but not to preempt prime time and not two weeks before the election. If this stands then equal time must be demanded and show Frenheit 911 as well.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
